Review

This reference book is an essential starting point for a greater understanding of contemporary Tajikistan. The authors touch upon prevalent anti-Taliban and anti-terror sentiments within the country, which have been essential for the success of efforts by the US government to topple the Taliban regime in Afghanistan and to continue to fight extremist Islamic terror. (Middle East Journal)

Written by a specialist on the history of Tajikistan and a specialist on international relations in the region, this dictionary is extremely useful for understanding the current situation in Tajikistan, its troubled recent history, and its new role in the war on terrorism in the Middle East and Central Asia...a welcome addition to the literature.
