Murder in the Vatican: The CIA and the Bolshevik Pontiff By Lucien Gregoire

.....In 1978, driven by Paul VI's encyclicals Populorum Progressio and Liberation Theology, there were two fronts on which the CIA was confronted by communism as a free democratic society, Italy and Central America. If Italy fell to communism much of Europe would follow. If Central America fell to communism much of Latin America would follow. It was in these parts of the world communism was raising its ugly head as the will of the people that was so very dangerous to the United States and its capitalistic allies. Henry Kissinger sounded the alarm, "Domination by Moscow is not the issue. Communist control of Italy and Central America is the issue. It would have terrible consequences for the United States and is the number one threat to its national security." When Paul VI died the CIA joined right-wing factions in the Church to elect a pro-American Pope. When the avowed Marxist--John Paul I--was elected it struck a nerve of shattering proportions in the United States. A swarm of mini-Cubas loomed on the horizon in Europe and in America's backyard. In CIA headquarters in McLean Virginia the ball began to roll...

Editorial Review

Review

"A monumental work of twentieth century capitalism as it was jointly embraced by the Vatican and the United States and those caught up in it." T. Francis Elliott, London Times.

"One beautiful life explodes into a trail of death and destruction in the Roman Catholic Church."

Howard Jason Smith, Boston Globe.

About the Author

Born in New England, George Lucien Gregoire did both his undergraduate and graduate work in Massachusetts schools. He spent his military years in U.S. Army Intelligence in Italy and the Arctic and his professional career as an officer of American and European corporations. He was an American industrialist operating in Central America dealing with the same banks the Vatican was involved with when the bank scandal and revolution he speaks of took place. For a time, he was a national figure in cooperative education and has served on the boards of both secondary schools and universities. He is the founding trustee of charitable organizations, many providing education to impaired children. Gregoire made the acquaintance of John Paul in the sixties when the Pope-as bishop of a mountain province-was involved in the priest-worker revolution which gave rise to the overwhelming success of the communist and socialist parties in the polls in Italy.
