The View at the Zoo By Kathleen Long Bostrom

In this humorous twist on a visit to the zoo, just who has the more interesting view?

As morning dawns, the zookeeper makes his rounds, exhorting the animals to wake up, comb their hair, and stand up straight. Soon their human visitors arrive, and the observations begin to flow:

My, what silly things they do, all these creatures at the zoo. Walking on all kinds of feet, dancing to an inner beat. Babies riding on their backs, on their bellies, snug in sacks. Hear the silly sounds they speak, as they howl and squawk and shriek!

But just who is talking about whom?

With a clever twist of text and bright and festive illustrations, this picture book will have children begging for a trip to the zoo. Ages 4-8.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Kathleen Long Bostrom's enthusiasm for zoos was evident from the tender age of one, when she tried to climb from her father's shoulders into the monkeys' cage! An ordained Presbyterian minister, Kathy has written dozens of books for kids and adults. She and her husband are parents of three grown children and live in Illinois with their beagle-mix, Ellie, who seems to really enjoy the view from Kathy's side.

You could say that Guy Francis began making his living as an artist back in grade school, when his friends would pay him twenty-five cents to draw cartoon characters for them. He still earns quarters (though more than one at a time) as an illustrator of books and games for children. Guy and his wife, Lorien, and their four children share a habitat in Utah.
