Where Genesis People Faced Dinosaurs: An Adventure in Paleontological Research By Paul Rosnau

This book features 82 BLACK & WHITE photographs of fossilized human footprints and hand impressions mingled with the fossilized footprints of dinosaurs, all near the town of Tuba City, AZ. The tracks indicate that the dinosaurs attacked the humans. This evidence refutes the notion that at the time of the dinosaurs no humans were in existence. For the serious paleontologist who wants the truth, this book is a must read. The evidence is irrefutable!
