Memoirs of Elise By David L. Gurnee

This sequel/prequel to "Somewhere in Time" was inspired by the movie's poignant opening scene. In this scene Elise McKenna sits alone in the darkness waiting for her opportunity to give a young playwright, Richard Collier, a watch, and to utter the enigmatic words, "Come back to me." The underlying emotion of this scene, and possibly of the entire film, comes from the fact that she had been waiting for this day for 60 years! What had Elise been through in those 60 years? How did she discover where Richard Collier had come from? How did she find him? Memoirs of Elise answers these questions in a manner that is loyal to the original story.
