World War Korea By Bill Myers

An octogenarian Korean War veteran is summoned to active duty 60 years after leaving the service to facilitate a high level North Korean defector who desires asylum in the United States. Meanwhile, a White House staffer plots to block the defection, stop the veteran, and manipulate the North Korean regime into starting the next world war. From fabricated aircraft failures to a North Korean hit team to nature itself, everything seems to be conspiring against the aging veteran and the defector. Will they reach the U.S. in time for an important Congressional hearing that could prevent a world catastrophe?
