Queen of otherworldly darkness Rice continues The Wolf Gift Chronicles, reuniting readers with Reuben Golding and his fellow werewolf companions as they prepare for their Midwinter festivities. Reuben is stunned to discover that his girlfriend, Laura, has decided to receive the Chrism that will turn her into a werewolf as well. He is further shocked to learn that his hostile ex-girlfriend, Celeste, is pregnant with their child, and he marries her so that the child won't be born out of wedlock. As if Reuben's love life weren't complicated enough, he starts seeing the ghost of Marchent, the lover whose brothers turned Reuben into a werewolf after they murdered her. Reuben realizes that Marchent hasn't let go of the physical world, and he has to persuade the Forest Gentry, a group of old and powerful ghosts, to aid her. In this complex and emotional tale, Reuben continues to use his powers as a werewolf to help people in trouble, though he unwittingly leads a loved one into danger. Readers crazy about The Wolf Gift (2012) will enjoy seeing Rice flesh out and expand Reuben's world on northern California's misty coast.
