Amazon.com Review

What's better than one hot romance? Two! That's what you'll find in Barbara Boswell's spicy, sassy contemporary romance, When Lightning Strikes Twice. Two New Jersey law firms are in direct competition for the same clients, and because the families who work for both have been entangled for years, mum's the word—if only everyone involved can master the art of keeping secrets. A junior partner in her family's practice, Rachel Saxon is known for her composure, that is, until Quint Cormack joins his father's firm and systematically begins to steal clients from the Saxons. Quint and Rachel have an undeniable attraction to one another that would ignite if only they could stop arguing in and out of court. But that's only half of the love equation in When Lightning Strikes Twice. The other Saxon junior partner, Wade, is desperately attracted to his best friend's sister, Dana Sheely, but he can't recognize his own attraction. Wade, Dana, Rachel, and Quint will have to make their way through the maze of secrets to sort it all out.
