The Harvest of Time: Memoirs of Growing Up During the Great Depression

By Cindy L. Haas

Follow John and Ettie Jo through their respective experiences, growing up during the Great Depression, surviving the severe economic hardships of their humble beginnings, meeting and falling in love during World War II, and still together, living independently at ages 88 and 92. Experience first hand their rags to riches story as told to their daughter and glimpse multiple generations of dry land wheat farming on the Montana prairie from horse and buggy homesteading to modern day computerized, chemicalized farming on the same plots of ground. This biographical story transcends personal, social, and economic industrial trends across the years.
