Green Card By Elizabeth Adams

William Harper has it all: looks, money, power. There's just one tiny problem – he's about to be deported. Harper needs a green card. Fast. An American wife is the easiest way to get one. But where will he find a woman to marry him on such short notice?

Katherine Bishop is a full-time student, part-time dog walker, and weekend tutor. With a roommate who just ran out on her and neck deep in tuition payments, she needs money. Now. Harper just might make her an offer she can't refuse.

He thinks he's worked out the perfect deal, but he didn't bargain for the collective quirks, brains, and sass of Katherine Bishop.

Can they go from strangers to friends? How will they live together without killing each other? Can they keep this enormous secret from all their friends and family?
