The Ballad of Rosamunde (The Jewels of Kinfairlie Book 4) By Claire Delacroix

A pirate queen trapped in the realm of Faerie, Rosamunde can only be freed by true love. The man she loved is lost to her forever so she believes herself doomed. Padraig, long in love with Rosamunde, believes his life to be worthless since she disappeared. When he hears of her capture by the Fey, he is determined to set her free - but can Rosamunde put the past behind her and learn to love anew?

This short story was previously published in the anthology, THE MAMMOTH BOOK OF IRISH ROMANCE, but was edited there for space constraints. This version contains the whole story. Rosamunde is a secondary character who appeared in The Jewels of Kinfairlie trilogy.

This edition includes an excerpt from THE RENEGADE'S HEART.

Editorial Review

From the Author

Dear Reader;

The Ballad of Rosamunde is a short story, a medieval romance with paranormal elements linked to my Jewels of Kinfairlie trilogy. At the end of that trilogy (which includes The Beauty Bride, The Rose Red Bride and The Snow White Bride), Rosamunde was lost in the realm of the Fae. I was always fond of Rosamunde, the pirate queen, and had intended to save her, but with the series brought to an end by the publisher, there was no way for me to do so.

When I was invited to participate in the Mammoth Book of Irish Romance, I realized that Rosamunde could have her story told there. It would have to be shorter to fit in the anthology, but at least it would be told. As it was, I maxed out the available word count, and the version of the story included in that anthology was cut for space constraints. The entire story is available in this digital-only edition. It is also included in the digital Jewels of Kinfairlie Boxed Set, and included as a bonus read in the new trade paperback edition of The Snow White Bride for those who prefer their books in print.

In 2012, I returned to Kinfairlie to continue the stories of the other siblings. This is a very exciting opportunity. The True Love Brides series takes us back to Kinfairlie after Alexander has declared that his younger siblings can marry for love. The portal to the realm of the Fae that always existed at Kinfairlie and Ravensmuir has also opened wider, partly due to Rosamunde's adventures. These books are medieval romances with paranormal elements. The new series begins with The Renegade's Heart, which is Isabella's story, then continues with The Highlander's Curse, which is Annelise's story. Next up will be Malcolm's story, The Frost Maiden's Kiss. (Rosamunde is past due for a cameo appearance, I think!) You will find a cast of characters in the back of the True Love Brides books, whether you have the print or digital edition.

If you are interested in the background of Kinfairlie and Ravensmuir, both of those fictional Scottish holdings were introduced in my medieval romance trilogy, The Rogues of Ravensmuir (The Rogue, The Scoundrel and The Warrior). These three books are also available in The Rogues of Ravensmuir Boxed Set, which makes it more economical to catch up. You do not have to read the Rogues of Ravensmuir before you read the Jewels of Kinfairlie, although you will see more connections between the characters if you do.

I hope you enjoy the story of Rosamunde, my pirate queen, and that it tempts you to visit Kinfairlie and Ravensmuir again.

All my best -
Claire
